She is the property of "Lucky" Norford who will have her
at the Hotel Leland.

The betting will be conducted in the same way as in 1898. No boards will be displayed, the bookmakers using outboards on which they will do odds.

HENRY SMITH'S FOUL WORK.

LOSES TO BERNSTEIN.

(A. P. NIGHT REPORT.)

NEW YORK, June 22.—Joe Bernstein
of this city met Solly Smith of Astoria at the Broadway Club,
after fighting fourteen rounds,
and was disqualified for fouling. The rounds matched to fight twenty-five
and a half pounds.

In the outset, Smith seemed in to a foul right hand, and in the fourth round he sent Bernstein back
by a right swing back of the
ear. After this, Smith was weaker,
but pluck and gameness were shown. In the sixteenth round, he was downed, but in the eighteenth
he got up again, and was moving to Bernstein's jaw which
had the East Side.

In the eleventh round, Smith was in a foul right hand, and in the twelfth round he sent Bernstein back
by a right swing back of the
ear. After this, Smith was weaker,
but pluck and gameness were
shown. In the sixteenth round, he
was downed, but in the eighteenth
he got up again, and was moving to Bernstein's jaw which
had the East Side.

GARDNER BEATS MCLOONEY.

(A. P. NIGHT REPORT.)

CHICAGO, June 22.—At the Star
Theater tonight, Eddie Gardner,
brother of Oscar Gardner, the "Omaha
Kid," gained a decision over Elwood McLooney of Philadelphia in their six round bout. The latter was the man who ever beat Terry McGovern at his own game of in-fighting.

For the first rounds the fighting was fairly even, but in the fifth and sixth
rounds Gardner fought himself loose,
and had the Philadelphian going
as the bell tapped.

NOTICES TO PATRONS.
 The Times has a regular carrier service at Long Beach, Santa Monica, Redondo and Catalina. City and out-of-town patrons who intend locating at any of these places may have the paper delivered to them promptly and regularly every day by leaving notice of desired change of address at The Times office, or with any of our agencies.

THE PLATFORM.

There has at no time been any doubt as to the Republican national platform of 1892. The position of the party and its representatives upon all the great and vital issues of the day has been so well defined, so outspoken and aggressive, that the drafting of the platform was essentially a pro forma proceeding; for there is no thought in the mind of any Republican of retreat or compromise on any of the great issues of the hour.

The declaration of principles which the Philadelphia convention has given us is no disappointment. It is a straightforward, unequivocal and consistent reaffirmation of Republican principles, which neither our opponents nor the wayfarer man, though a fool, can misunderstand. Not a single important issue is evaded or ignored. The platform, in every word and sentence, means fight.

Without going into a review of its details, in detail, it may be said that the platform declares unequivocally in favor of the gold standard, and specifically against free silver coinage; cordially and unreservedly endorses the administration of President McKinley; favors the regulation and restriction of trusts; declares with emphasis for the continuance of adequate tariff protection; favors a wise restriction of immigration; liberal pensions; an efficient civil service; an untrammeled ballot; national legislation to reclaim the arid lands; reduction of war taxes; "the construction, ownership, control, and protection of an isthmian canal by the government of the United States;" the "open door" in the Orient; protection for all American citizens abroad; approves the annexation of Hawaii; expresses the hope that honorable peace may soon be restored in South Africa; declares that "our authority could not be less than our responsibility" in the Philippines, and in favor of "the largest measure of self-government consistent with their welfare and our duty" for the Philippines; after the insurrection shall have been suppressed, and pledges to Cuba independence and self-government.

Upon this superb platform the Republican party will stand in the campaign upon which we are just entering. In some respects it is the most important Presidential campaign in the history of the American Union. As Gov. Roosevelt pointed out in his eloquent and forceful address regarding the nomination of President McKinley, the success of our Demo-Populist opponents in the present critical juncture would mean the undoing of the country; for it would mean the turning back of the hands of the dial of progress, the supplanting of confidence by distrust, of prosperity by adversity, of widespread commercial activity and industrial enterprise by stagnation.

Fortunately no such calamity is in prospect. Republican victory is virtually assured, if the Republican hosts stand up to their duty all along the line. If this be done, the magnitude of our victory will be the only question that will be left uncertain. Our platform is strong and sound in every timber and our ticket is one which every loyal Republican can support with superlative enthusiasm.

Let the column move.

to interfere with the strikers at St. Louis is because he is opposed to the principle of governing without the consent of the governed.

The Democrats have taken the wise precaution to provide for a corps of surgeons headed by the famous Dr. Nicholas Senn of Chicago, to attend to the cracked craniums and bloody noses at the Kansas City convention.

David Bennett Hill has apparently discovered that he isn't nearly so big a man as he thought he was, and is now permitting himself to be talked about as a causal appendix to Bryan's flying machine.

There is patriotism enough in the ticket nominated at Philadelphia to make certain a very uncomfortable din in the ears of the Democrats on the Fourth of July.

If some of the foreign troops in China don't get mixed up in a cross-fire and hit somebody besides a Chinaman before this affair is over, it will be cause for surprise.

Andrew D. White, United States Ambassador at Berlin, expresses himself as highly pleased with the Republican national ticket and platform. So say we all.

"Rag time," says the Denver News, "the democracy of music." It would not be altogether proper, however, to say that the music of Democracy is to the people of the United States have no wish to inflict unnecessary hardship upon the people of the Philippines, and have no intention of oppressing or wronging them in any way. If the President's offer be met in the spirit in which it is put forth, there will be no more fighting in the islands, excepting such fighting as may be necessary to suppress brigandage—and in this effort every honest Filipino may conscientiously cooperate with the Americans.

The outcome of the President's offer of amnesty will be looked forward to with especial interest, for upon it will depend, in a large degree, the course of events in the islands in the immediate future. If it be accepted in good faith by Aguinaldo and his associates leaders in the insurrection, the work of reorganization and development in the islands can begin at once, and it will go forward, when once fairly inaugurated, with wonderful rapidity. If the inhabitants of the Philippines can be made to know the truth, that they have everything to gain and nothing to lose by accepting the American regime and co-operating heartily in carrying it out, they will witness in their country an era of development and progress such as they have never conceived in their wildest imaginings. And, furthermore, in accepting the American régime they will be called upon to make no sacrifices of their personal rights, immunities, or liberties. On the contrary, they will acquire new rights, immunities and liberties in accepting the proffered protection of the Stars and Stripes. They will, in point of fact, acquire the same liberties, to all intents and purposes, as are enjoyed by the people of the United States; and the people of the United States, as all the world knows, are the freest people on the earth.

EDWARD OF THE ARID WEST.

The Times reproduces with peculiar interest the following clipping
from the Republican platform:

"We further purport the consolidation of the Republic and the protection of free homes on the public lands, we recommend adequate national legislation to regulate the arid regions of the United States, regarding the regulation of the distribution of water
by the respective States
and Territories."

It is with no small pride that for years
we have almost alone in advocating
the Federal action in relating to the arid lands and the means for ultimate success is nowhere else. This journal has been the most influential in pushing
the bill forward, and in support of
it have sold 8,000,000 in a few months.

LEAD LOWER. The price of lead has been reduced by the American Smelting and Refining Company one-eighth of a cent, to 2.75, making a reduction of 95 points in a little over a month.

STOCKS OF COTTON. The Daily Goods Record states that the world's visible supply of cotton is now reported at 1,500,000 bales, after the twelve weeks to August 31 to maintain the mills running at their present consumption will require something in excess of 1,000,000 bales. The market must draw largely upon the invisible supply. It is estimated that this year's Egyptian cotton crop will be equivalent to 1,000,000 American bales.

INCREASED EXPORTS. In testifying before the Industrial Commission, Frank L. Schuchert, chief of the Bureau of Foreign Markets in the Department of Agriculture, said that the export trade of the United States in products of agriculture had increased from 1900 to 1901, amounting to $160,000,000. Under present conditions at least 25 per cent. of the agricultural products of the United States is available for export. In 1900, he said, the total agricultural products were $257,000,000, which had increased in 1901 to $273,000,000. Refrigeration was a wonderful help to the trade, making it in meats, butter, cheese, fruits, etc.

DEMAND FOR LABOR. According to the American Federation of Labor organ, the general state of employment during April continued exceptionally good. In the 65 unions making returns, with the exception of 1,000,000 men, 141,111 (2.3 per cent.) were reported as unemployed at the end of April, as compared with 1.9 per cent. in the 65 unions with a membership of 75,254, from which returns were received for March, 1900.

GENERAL BUSINESS TOPICS. GET YOUR STAMPS RIGHT. The Postmaster-General has issued an order giving to the Island of Guam, the Philippines archipelago and Tutuila (including all the adjacent islands of the Samoan group) the same possessions of the United States the postage, domestic classification and conditions as prevail in the United States. The rates of postage on mail matter sent to or from these islands, including Hawaii and Porto Rico, or from those possessions to the United States, are just the same as from one State to another. All other possessions are included, according to the order, in the term "United States," but the Island of Guam, the Philippines archipelago and Tutuila are to go under the term "Islands Possessions of the United States."

A letter mailed in the United States and addressed to China will have a cent stamp or its equivalent affixed to the envelope. Thousands of letters are being received in Havana daily with only first class postage paid, leaving the postal regulations much annoyance to all concerned might be avoided.

LIFE INSURANCE DISBURSEMENTS. The Insurance Press has compiled statistics showing the amounts of life insurance paid out in compensation to beneficiaries in any year in more than four thousand cities and towns of the United States and Canada. Twenty states which received more than $1,000,000 apiece in 1900, and the amounts received, are as follows:

New York ... $13,697,000 New Orleans ... $11,910,461 Brooklyn ... 7,622,552 Cleveland ... 1,821,241 Chicago ... 5,608,621 Detroit ... 1,442,513 Baltimore ... 2,130,722 Providence ... 1,128,626 San Francisco ... 2,323,052 Denver ... 1,166,872 Pittsburgh ... 2,644,331 Newark ... 1,067,998

A SCHOOL FOR SALESPERSONS.

The rapid multiplication and growth of so-called department stores opens up an interesting subject—the business equipment of the men and women who, in view of the fact that they are between merchants and customers, says the New York Sun. One phase of the matter is thus presented by a gentleman who makes him familiar with the situation:

"The rank and file of salespeople are go of necessity," he says. "Their character often reflects low, faint, easy method of livelihood, with no tax on their mind, and as a chief requirement, continued attendance from 6 o'clock a.m. to 9 p.m. six days in the week. Remuneration is directly based upon the amount of sales; as a consequence, while some are very successful, others are not. Optimism or persistence forge rapidly ahead, the great body of human store aids go along in some fashion or another, dragging heavily only wages with but little hope of better condition."

"It is not this business of selling the world's wardrobe as mere profession as curing it when ill, litigating for it, saving its soul, supplying its inseparable other collective needs? Dare a doctor practice dentistry?"

"Would a lawyer argue a knotty point of law with no knowledge of precedents, equity or mode of legal procedure? Would a lawyer, untrained, they do not spring full armed into life's arena, nor have there been any record of success without full previous preparation?"

"Women who do the world's shopping appreciate tact and suavity. Unconsciously they are guided by authority, even though it be a saleswoman who, with reserves of information at command, can unquestionably decide a question of color blending, or clothing to fit the little girls and babies, higher successive steps for all degrees of proficiency, lectures by people who have fashion to sell, and the like. The little girls in a store possess such characteristics why not the entire staff, from cash girl to superintendent?"

A SCHOOL IN THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL or university is suggested. Offered by dry goods experts, it will impart such tuition as has been outlined. A kind degree course for the little girls and babies, higher successive steps for all degrees of proficiency, lectures by people who have fashion to sell, and the like. Prudence...

See what it means—carefulness, judgment, discretion, wisdom. None but like to be credited with prudence, but the man or woman who goes to the optician recommended by their oculist is not prudent. Why? He charges double price—has to give the oculist half for recommending you to him. We'll cut in half the price of any optician in town.
